Apollo 8 Home; Astronauts 'Excellent'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
ABOARD USS YORKTOWN (AP) — Climaxing a magnificent space odyssey, the Apollo 8 moon explorers came home from the heavens today, steering their spaceship to a pinpoint landing less than three miles from the main recovery ship in a darkened Pacific Ocean.

They landed just before dawn and waited patiently in their bobbing spaceship for 45 minutes until the first rays of light began to illuminate the Pacific so that swimmers could safely drop into the sea to secure the Apollo 8 craft.

America's newest heroes ended man's greatest space adventure and one of history's most momentous explorations when they survived man's hottest and fastest dive through the atmosphere and parachuted into a gently rolling sea about 5,000 yards from the Yorktown.

The astronauts climbed into a life raft and were hoisted aboard a helicopter 80 minutes after landing. They were ferried quickly to the carrier, which had steamed toward the scene from the moment of touchdown.

With a beautiful dawn breaking over the Pacific, Borman, Lovell and Anders were deposited on the carrier deck at 12:20 p.m. EST.

Hundreds of sailors cheered and snapped pictures as the bearded adventurers stepped on deck and strolled a bit uneasily across a red carpet rolled out for the occasion.

The astronauts were dressed in white flight suits, into which they had changed while waiting for recovery.

They smiled and waved to acknowledge the cheers of the sailors.

Udall Faces McCormack For Speaker

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Morris K. Udall's startling challenge to the House Democratic leadership was welcomed by liberal-moderates today, but he faces a stiff battle to unseat Speaker John W. McCormack.

Udall, in announcing Thursday he was after 77-year-old McCormack's job, said he had reached the decision without lining up any prior backing or consulting with the liberal-moderate leadership.

Several members of the liberal-moderate Democratic Study Group, a largely informal alliance of some 140 members, including Udall, said they were surprised by the four-term Arizona congressman's announcement.

Find Stolen Car Used By Escapees

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP) — The Shelby County Sheriff's Office reported that a stolen car believed used by two escapees from the Wyandot County was found abandoned in Anna Thursday night. Another car was stolen in Anna. The first auto was stolen in Carey.

There was a feeling among others, however, that Udall's pledge to call for other nominations if he unseats McCormack on the first ballot was the strongest factor going for him.

Fred Raymond Brown, 18, and Herman Eiler, 31, broke out of the jail Christmas night. Brown was being held for auto theft, Eiler on a federal warrant charging him with assault and robbery.

First test of Udall's strength will come by secret ballot at the Democratic caucus Jan. 2. The nominee of the caucus will be presented to the full House when it convenes Jan. 3. Since the Democrats hold the majority, (Continued on Page 2)

Paris Talkers May Get New U.S. Proposal

Most Diplomats See No Moves Before Jan. 20

PARIS (AP) — Cyrus R. Vance's impending return to Paris raised expectations today of a new U.S. move to break the long deadlock delaying the Vietnam peace talks.

Vance, due back tonight, has been the U.S. negotiator in the talks with the North Vietnamese on the shape of the conference table and other procedural issues blocking the start of the expanded conference.

During Vance's consultations Christmas week with President Johnson, President-elect Nixon and other U.S. leaders, the U.S.-North Vietnamese talks lapsed into a holiday lull while the rival Vietnamese delegations stood firm in their entrenched public positions.

Despite anticipation that Vance might be returning with new proposals, some diplomats are saying privately they expect no substantial progress of any sort until after Nixon is inaugurated, his administration makes (Continued on Page 2)

Icy Glaze Hits Roads In Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Snow, freezing drizzle, rain and fog chilled or dampened most of the nation's interior today while a retreating cold snap numbed parts of the Northeast for the second day in a row.

Sandwiching the dismal weather pattern on either side were clear skies in the Far West and the Southeast.

The layer-cake pattern of moisture was a recipe of treacherous ingredients for motorists in parts of the Midwest and Great Lakes region.

Freezing drizzle glazed highways in much of lower Michigan and parts of Wisconsin. Rain and fog were the rule southward across the remainder of the Midwest and central plains.

Light snow dusted much of the northern tier of states and spilled south into the Appalachians. A disorganized storm system over the Southwest blanketed portions of Arizona and New Mexico with 1 to 2 inches of snow before dawn.

Thunderstorms broke out in unseasonably mild air from the southern plains to the lower Midwest. Early morning temperatures in the 50s reached as far north as St. Louis.

Coastal sections of the Northeast warmed slightly from Thursday's subzero chill, but interior New England and adjacent upstate New York remained locked in severe cold.

Freezing rain that for hours Thursday night and early Friday made Ohio's highways and streets slick with ice, caused hundreds of fender-bender type accidents before rising temperatures and warmer rain relieved the situation.

In Columbus alone police stopped counting the accident reports early Thursday evening after they reached between 300 and 500, none of them serious.

In Cleveland Memorial Shoreway and Innerbelt 71 were closed for more than an hour early Friday because of freezing rain which glazed surfaces.

Salt trucks moved out from all communities and before daylight Friday traffic was moving in a near normal fashion. It rained hard in Columbus and some other communities before dawn.

Some secondary roads and city streets were still hazardous for driving Friday morning.

Kidnaped Girl's Body Recovered

Worst Of Flu Said Yet To Come

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Hong Kong Flu has caused widespread or regional illnesses in 3 states and deaths attributed to pneumonia-influenza more than doubled during the third week of December, the National Communicable Disease Center reports.

Officials are standing by their earlier predictions that the epidemic will not hit its peak until early or mid-January.

During the week ending Dec. 21, The center's figures show approximately 500 more deaths from pneumonia-influenza in 122 selected cities throughout the nation than might normally be expected.

However, Dr. David J. Sencer, the center's director, cautioned that the figures from the 122 cities are "purely a sampling." He said that they should not be interpreted too strictly.

Sencer said the NCDC is taking the unusual step of using an editorial on the front page of its weekly report to caution about relying upon interpretations of the figures.

The weekly report is due for release later today but the figures it contains were confirmed Thursday night by several NODC officials including Sencer.

The director said the rising number of deaths is part of a trend which began about two weeks ago and they were up "sharply" during the week ending Dec. 21.

Normally—in years with no flu epidemic—about 500 persons would be expected to die of pneumonia-influenza during the third week of December, a spokesman for the center reported. The actual total from the 122 cities will be about 1,000 dead, he said.

The spokesman said the new strain of flu has become so widespread that "if you're getting the flu, it's the Hong Kong flu." He explained that in a national epidemic, the strongest single strain soon becomes the only variety showing up in tests.

In the first two weeks of December, the center's figures show 1,375 deaths in the 122 cities from pneumonia-influenza. That compares with the 966 deaths anticipated from such causes.

A spokesman said this means 409 deaths could be attributed to the flu during the first two weeks of this month—the first time this fall any significant number of deaths above the anticipated level have been recorded.

Suspect Leads Police To Site; 'Almost Casual'

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — A fugitive from a Missouri mental hospital has been charged with murder after leading police to the frozen body of 10-year-old Pamela Powers, missing since Christmas Eve.

A self-styled minister who identified himself as Anthony Erthell Williams, 24, a Negro, wordlessly directed detectives to Pamela's half-clothed body, wedged between a culvert and the side of a snow-covered 15-foot embankment, Thursday.

Police waited results of an autopsy to determine how the blonde, blue-eyed fourth-grader died and how long she had been in the spot near Mitchellville, 10 miles east of Des Moines on Interstate 80.

Des Moines Police Chief Wendell Nichols said Williams agreed to disclose the place to detective Capt. Cleatus Leaming and Lt. Wallace Nelson during the automobile trip from Davenport, Iowa, where Williams had turned himself in Thursday morning.

After his arraignment on an open charge of murder under heavy guard at the Des Moines police station Thursday, Williams spoke only to his lawyer, Henry T. McKnight of Des Moines.

Nichols said officers did not press Williams for details of the Christmas Eve abduction or slaying under terms of an agreement with McKnight on Williams' surrender.

Officers who accompanied Williams and the two detectives to the girl's body said Williams showed no signs of emotion.

"He was almost casual and not downcast," said one. His return to Des Moines police headquarters—only four blocks from the YMCA building where Pamela disappeared Tuesday—was conducted under heavy security after police received anonymous telephone calls threatening Williams' life.

Navy Questions Pueblo Sailors

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The Navy is conducting intensive questioning of the freed crewmen of the USS Pueblo after examining doctors reported finding no serious defects, other than malnutrition.

A team of more than 100 intelligence specialists began talking with crewmen Thursday afternoon in what will become one of the most exhaustive investigations of a loss of a ship in Navy history, officials said.

The investigators want to know precisely how much sensitive electronic equipment may have been left intact when the North Koreans took control of the intelligence vessel.

The circumstances of the Jan. 23 capture and treatment of the Americans also concern the questioners in great degree.

One of the men to undergo some of the most intensive debriefing will be the ship's executive officer, Lt. Edward R. Murphy Jr., who was navigator on the bridge when the Pueblo was captured.

Murphy, looking more rested than at his first stateside news conference Tuesday, told newsmen he deliberately misled his North Korean captors when they forced him to draw charts that gave the Pueblo's position inside North Korean waters at the time of the capture.

"I wanted to make sure there were enough inaccuracies in what I was saying to be identified," Murphy said.

He said the North Korean officer "who had to prove the whole force" had no navigational experience and allowed obvious errors to pass.

The 31-year-old lieutenant from San Diego said the errors included positions that would have required a speed of 2,500 knots to maintain, and another position 32 miles inland. He said he planned the inaccuracies to show to the world that the evidence was doctored by the North Koreans.

Plane Crashes; No Fatalities Are Reported

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—An Ozark Air Lines DC9 with 62 passengers crashed on take-off at the Sioux City Airport this morning. A control tower spokesman said there apparently were no deaths or serious injuries.

The jet airplane, on flight No. 982 from Sioux City to Chicago, crashed 1 1/2 miles north of the runway, police said.

A witness said the right wing seemed to dip as the aircraft took off and the plane plunged into a grove of trees.

U.S. Command Says Light Contacts Made With VC

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command said today that American troops are doing less fighting than they have at any time in the past three months. But the South Vietnamese government said its forces killed 146 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in four clashes Thursday, captured 49 new Viet Cong draftees and uncovered a sizable store of munitions.

The South Vietnamese said their losses were nine killed and 33 wounded in the four clashes. Three were in the Mekong Delta and the fourth was near Da Nang.

The heaviest of the fights raged for several hours about 20 miles southwest of Da Nang. The U.S. Command reported only light contact in scattered actions for U.S. forces.

One high-ranking U.S. officer said it was too early to determine the significance of the lull but he said the Christmas cease-fire undoubtedly was a factor.

"We felt that for the most part there was a fairly good effort on the part of the Viet Cong to stay by the truce," he said.

American reconnaissance continued during the 24-hour allied cease-fire, and the officer said the enemy apparently did not make any great effort to maneuver troops and supplies during the period.

The U.S. Command said 133 incidents of enemy activity were reported during the allied truce period, and 47 were considered significant because cas-

Cincy Plans Bridge Study

CINCINNATI (AP)—The city plans to make its own study of four of the five bridges linking Cincinnati with northern Kentucky although the bridges, recently declared obsolete, are owned by Kentucky.

City council has asked City Manager Richard Krabach to recommend ways in which the city can assist in preserving the spans which are used by at least 150,000 vehicles daily to cross the Ohio River.

The Kentucky Highway Department in a report earlier this week said the bridges are "functionally obsolete." One of the four, leading from Cincinnati to Covington, was closed a few weeks ago pending further inspection.

Councilman Gordon Rich said of the highway department's report: "I presume this means they could be closed down at anytime. If one more closes down we're going to have traffic jams here north to the Butler County line."

All four are more than 70 years old and only the Brent Spence Bridge, constructed five years ago, was excluded from the Kentucky report.

Extend Deadline For Policemen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Municipalities around the state will have until March 1, 1969, to comply with the Uniform Traffic Court Rules, the Ohio Supreme Court announced Thursday.

The high court said it was extending the deadline from Jan. 1, 1969, because many municipalities have not been able to get adequate supplies of the Uniform Traffic Ticket which will be used by all Ohio law enforcement agencies.

But the court urged that all courts which are prepared for the rule changeover go ahead with their plans.

FBI Breaks Up Liquor Hijacking; 3 Men Arrested

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The FBI says it has arrested a third man in the hijacking of $100,000 worth of liquor and wine bound for West Virginia state retail outlets.

Agents said George Lemak was arrested at his electroplating shop in suburban Pittsburgh Thursday, two days after most of the stolen liquor was recovered in a pre-dawn raid on a secluded cabin in Westmoreland County.

The FBI said it nabbed two men in the raid and smashed a hijacking ring that had been operating in West Virginia and Pennsylvania. They are Thomas Balent, 58, of suburban Turtle Creek, and Paul Vokovich, 40, of Columbus, Ohio.

The liquor was stolen from a Charleston, W.Va., war-house, and the FBI said it is seeking additional suspects in the Charleston area.

Red Chinese Explode Big Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist China detonated early today a nuclear device with a yield of about three megatons or three million tons of TNT, the Atomic Energy Commission announced.

The AEC said the atmospheric test, the eighth detected by the United States, occurred in the Lop Nor area about 2:30 a.m. EST.

Ruling On Uniform Taxes For Ohio Puzzles Officials

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Board of Tax Appeals is expected to request a formal interpretation of Tuesday's Ohio Supreme Court ruling calling for uniform property taxes in Ohio.

The court returns from a holiday recess in about 10 days.

Tax officials are still puzzled by the ruling, and Thursday the appeals board decided to take no action until a more explicit court ruling.

In Tuesday's ruling in a Cuyahoga County case the Supreme Court said that all real estate taxes in Ohio must be assessed on a uniform level.

But the chairman of the State Board of Tax Appeals, Francis B. Douglass, said that there are numerous "curbstone opinions and interpretations" in the ruling.

One interpretation is that the state must establish statewide rules for determining tax valuation of real estate and that tax assessments must be uniform both inter-county and intra-county.

Tax officials said that assessment levels are presently equal within counties but that there is about a 10 per cent variance between the highest and lowest assessment levels in the state.

Another interpretation is that the court was concerned only with different types of real estate. That is, there should be

Two Men Hurt When Taxi Rams Train

Two Circleville men were slightly injured when a taxi cab collided with a Penn Central Railroad train 12:47 a.m. Friday on Clinton St. near Mill St.

Injured were Maynard W. Dearth, 58, of 139 York St., driver of the cab, and a passenger, Lloyd Ferguson, 57, Route 3. Dearth sustained a knee injury and Ferguson complained of back injuries and a cut right hand.

Engineer of the train was William Berens, 52, Lancaster. He and the train fireman, Mike Dent, Bremen, were in the train cab when the accident occurred.

Dent told police, "We started backing away from the molasses tanks by Eshelman mill. We had bells ringing and started blowing the whistle. We saw lights coming north on Clinton St. The car got by the tracks and hesitated, then seemed to ignore us and came across. We put the train in emergency and hit the car."

The auto, owned by Dearth, was totally demolished. The train was not damaged.

Although there has been talk of trying to unseat McCormack, speaker since 1961, some liberal-moderates have said that attempts to alter the rigid seniority system and seize some committee chairmanships from conservatives would take precedence in the new Congress.

In announcing his decision to make the race, the 46-year-old Udall, brother of Interior Secretary Stewart Udall, said he would construe a first-ballot defeat for the McCormack "not as a decision that I should be Speaker" but only "a vote that a change is desired."

A caucus contest, he said in letters to colleagues, need not split the party but "should strengthen us in the House and in the country at large."

McCormack's backers, who include powerful committee members and deans of some of the larger state delegations, are not "running scared." They put Udall's top strength at 50 votes.

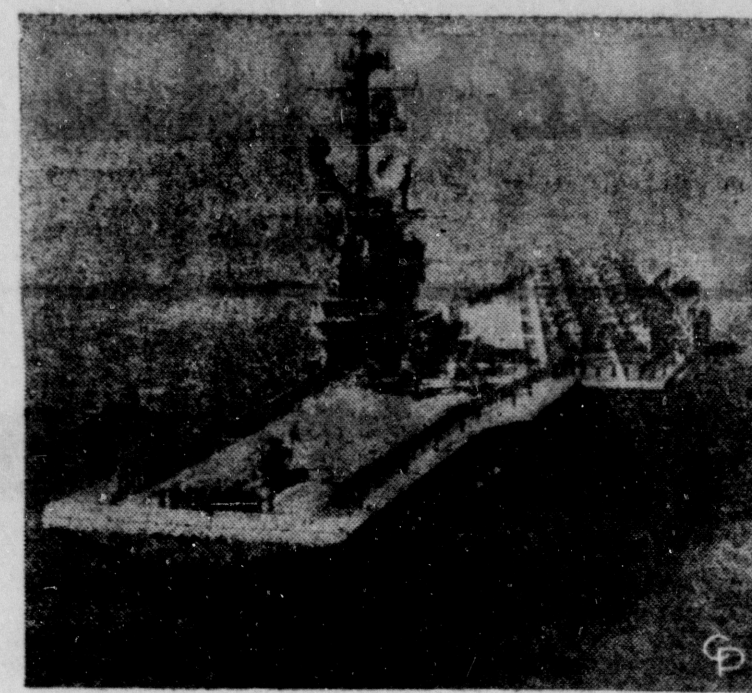

Udall said his decision to oppose McCormack, "is mine and mine alone. I am the candidate of no individual member or group of members."

The challenge to McCormack, veteran of 40 years in the House, is unprecedented in modern history. Never before has an incumbent Speaker of either party faced a contest for reelection to that powerful position. There have been several occasions when a party leader was ousted, but not when his party was in control of the House.

One incumbent Speaker, Joe Cannon of Illinois, was stripped of much of his power by colleagues dissatisfied with his dictatorial tactics. But he didn't lose his job or his gavel.

PICKUP SHIP — Prime pickup ship for the Apollo 8 splashdown Friday morning was the aircraft carrier Yorktown shown here in the Pacific.

Apollo . . .

They are the first U.S. astronauts to land in darkness. It was 4:50 a.m. local time, about an hour before dawn and 45 minutes before first light.

Unless there were an emergency, frogmen did not plan to deploy from the helicopters until first light, leaving the astronauts to wait out the recovery in their floating craft.

"Crew condition okay," came the happy report from Yorktown.

The astronauts had been away from earth exactly six days three hours on a dramatic mission that thrilled the world and gave man his first closeup look at the mysterious celestial neighbor that has intrigued humans since the beginning.

They traveled 69 hours outward to the moon, circled it 10 times in 20 hours at an altitude of 70 miles and then raced home along a 58-hour corridor. They logged about 537,000 perfect miles.

To reach their landing target in the Pacific, Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders survived man's hottest and fastest re-entry through the atmosphere.

Apollo 8 slammed into the outer limits of the atmosphere at 24,630 miles an hour, was punished by forces nearly seven times the pull of gravity and was blistered by heat of more than 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

The astronauts had been on a perfect course since they fired themselves out of moon orbit early Wednesday and started their 58-hour, 233,000-mile homeward journey. So accurate was the path that three planned mid-course corrections were cancelled.

Like a speeding bullet, Apollo's velocity gradually increased until it reached a breath-taking 24,630 m.p.h. as it slammed into the outer boundary of the earth's atmosphere 400,000 feet above the Pacific Ocean. That's 7,000 miles faster than any previous man-in-space re-entry.

Friction immediately built up and the craft's heat shield was blistered by temperatures of more than 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit. But the temperature in the cabin remained a comfortable 70 degrees.

The astronauts planned to remain on the Yorktown for a day, primarily for medical checks. Saturday they are to fly off the carrier to Hawaii and transfer to a larger plane for a flight to Ellington Air Force Base, only a half-hour drive from their homes near the Space Center.

Their families plan to greet them when they land at Ellington at 5 a. m. Sunday—and for a day at least they'll have time for a belated Christmas celebration.

After that they'll begin extensive debriefings on their historic mission, in which they circled the moon 10 times in 20 hours and paved the way for other astronauts to land there sometime next year.

Experts will probe them carefully on the performance of the huge Saturn 5 that rocketed them out of this world Dec. 21, the Apollo 8 spacecraft that performed magnificently through the six days, their flu-like illnesses early in the flight, and, of course, the moon itself.

Moon geologists will be eager to study the thousands of pictures which were taken of the rugged surface, described by the astronauts as "a vast expanse of nothing," "uninviting," "unappetizing," looking like "plaster of paris" or "beach sand."

They'll quiz the astronauts about any scientific knowledge the trio may have gained about the features, whether craters were formed by meteorite impact or volcano.

There will be questions about variations in orbital path as Apollo 8 circled the moon at an altitude of 70 miles, and if these were caused by large concentrations of material buried beneath the surface.

Also, the geologists will want to know if the moon has a weak atmosphere and what the hidden backside looks like.

But most of all, NASA officials will ask them about navigating and attempts to land. Preliminary reports from Apollo 8 indicated it was relatively easy to navigate and locate landmarks on the surface.

More Bogus Checks Used

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Treasurer John D. Herbert reported today that counterfeiting and cashing of Ohio unemployment compensation checks is continuing despite efforts of Ohio authorities to warn banks and businessmen to make sure they are accepting genuine state warrants.

Herbert said his office now has received a total of 131 counterfeit warrants representing $10,494 and that the latest batch totaling 19 had been cashed mostly in grocery or department stores rather than at banks.

The counterfeit ring appears to be cashing the bogus checks in the Fairborn and Dayton areas, although several have been cashed in Cincinnati, Springfield, Franklin and Kettering.

Herbert again reminded businessmen that the light blue check is fraudulent if the heading to the right of the state seal reads "State of Ohio" followed by a second line reading "Bureau of Unemployment Compensation."

Genuine checks have the words "Ohio Bureau of Employment Services" which appear to the right of the seal.

2 More Ohioans Die In Vietnam

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Defense Department reported Thursday that two more Ohio servicemen died recently in the Vietnam war.

Killed in action was Army Pfc. Dennis L. Dulebohn of Wapakoneta.

Army Pfc. Howard J. Vaughan of Diamond, Portage County, died of non-hostile causes. He had been listed as missing.

Icy Streets Blamed For Six Accidents In 3-Hour Span

Circleville police investigated six accidents within a three-hour period late Thursday and early today. All the wrecks involved parked cars and all were blamed on icy roads. No one was injured.

Two accidents both occurred Thursday at 9:38 p.m. when motorists skidded on slick pavement, striking parked cars. The two accidents happened on W. Main St. near Scioto St.

At 9:45 p.m. police were called to a hit-skip crash on Nicholas Drive near Dalley's Market. Owner of the slightly damaged car was Ellis Parrott, 289 Nicholas Drive.

Two more accidents occurred when motorists misjudged the slipperiness of city streets. At 11:39 p.m. wrecks occurred at the corner of Pinckney St. and Scioto St.

Michael L. Fuller, 18, of 802 S. Washington St., told police that his car was struck by an unknown vehicle while it was parked at work. The accident was reported at 12:25 a.m. today.

Plan Changes In Czechoslovak Government

PRAGUE (AP) — The government of Premier Oldrich Cernik is resigning this weekend to make room for Cernik's new federal regime that takes office by Jan. 1, Communist sources said today.

The reason for the reshuffle is the introduction of a new federal system to give more autonomy to the two national groups—Czechs and Slovaks—which form this nation. No startling change in the complexion of the power group is expected.

A federal government, smaller than Cernik's present Cabinet, will direct the federal administration. Functions of other ministries will be shifted to new regional governments, one in Prague responsible for the Czech territories of Bohemia and Moravia, the other in Bratislava, capital of Slovakia.

Qualified sources said the shift is essentially an effort to decentralize some government authority rather than increase conservative influence to appease the Soviets.

Steer Enrollments Due

Steer enrollments are due by Jan. 1, for all 4-H members, according to George Hamrick, county extension agent.

Murder Of Martin Luther King Marked April, 1968

EDITOR'S NOTE — Following is the fourth of 12 articles on The Year that Was — a review of the events which made 1968 a unique news year.

By JOY SILLEY
Associated Press Writer
April spelled tragedy in the United States. Not only was Negro civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. assassinated, but there was an aftermath of riots that left death, destruction and bitterness.

Nobel Peace Prize winner and advocate of nonviolence, King met violent death by gunfire as he stood on the balcony of a Negro-owned motel not far from downtown Memphis, Tenn. It was April 4.

As word spread through the country, so did disorder, fires and looting. In Washington, hardest hit of 100 cities, Negro mobs burned and looted within two miles of the White House. A curfew was imposed, sales of firearms and liquor were banned and 4,000 federal troops were called up.

Other Americans reacted by closing stores, cancelling sports and social events, and halting campaign activity. A mourning nation counted up the cost in lives—46 dead, all but five of them Negroes. The cost in money was nearly incalculable.

The 65-day strike of the mostly Negro sanitation workers in Memphis, which had brought King to the city where he died, ended with a new contract on April 16.

Life crept back toward normalcy and political activity resumed. On April 27 Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey made the not-unexpected announcement that he would seek the nomination for president from the Democratic party.

Three days later New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller reversed himself and declared he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination. Within hours he had scored an upset write-in victory in the Massachusetts primary against favorite son Gov. John A. Volpe.

Meanwhile the number of Americans wounded in the Vietnam war reached a record 3,886 for one week. But there was a bright note. North Vietnam agreed at long last to peace talks with the United States.

The month was highlighted by highly unusual finishes in two sports events.

In the Masters golf classic at Augusta, Ga., a slip of the pencil crowned a new champion. The final round on April 14 had ended with a pair of 277 scores for Bob Golyb, 37, of Illinois, and Roberto de Vicenzo, 40-year-old Argentinian.

Then an error was discovered on De Vicenzo's score card. He had been credited with a par 4 on the 17th hole instead of the birdie 3 he had actually made. Having signed the card and returned it to the committee, he was forced by official rules to abide by its 66 total instead of the 65 that had won him a tie. Automatically Golyb was declared winner.

Another extraordinary contest was played out on the baseball field as the New York Mets and Houston Astros met April 15 in the Astrodome. Starting at 7:30 p.m. and ending at 1:36 the next morning, it achieved the distinction of becoming, by two innings, the longest night game ever played before Houston finally scored a run in the 24th inning to win 1-0.

In England, London Bridge was knocked down—by the auctioneer's gavel—to developers of Lake Havasu City, a 4-year-old community established around an artificial lake on the Arizona desert. The price: $2.46 million.

John Glenn Eyes Ohio Politics Again

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Former astronaut John Glenn Jr. is considering a second try at politics in his native Ohio, State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady said Thursday.

"He said he would call me upon his return from Europe to discuss the Ohio situation," O'Grady told a newsman. "O'Grady said he believes Glenn, the first U.S. astronaut to orbit the earth, still is in Europe. Glenn's home is in Houston, Tex."

Glenn entered the Democratic primary for a U.S. Senate seat from Ohio in 1964 but was forced to withdraw after suffering a head injury in a bathroom fall.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, has indicated he will not seek re-election in 1970. And Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes is prohibited by state law from seeking re-election in 1970.

But O'Grady declined comment on whether Glenn is considering seeking Young's seat or the governorship.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Ladies' Man Wants Girl Pallbearers

DEAR ABBY: I am 68 years of age. I am not "married," but my wife is. She says there will be no men at my funeral, but the place will be crowded with weeping widows. She's right. I like the ladies and the ladies like me!

My problem: Having no men friends, I find I am short six pallbearers, so I am wondering if it is proper to have women pallbearers? I'm sure they wouldn't have any trouble getting women. If anything, it would probably cause a big fight because so many women would want the honor.

Abby, will you kindly take care of this matter for me as soon as possible as I have a feeling I am living on borrowed time.

WILD BILL

DEAR BILL: I have never heard of women pallbearers, and don't expect your wife to be one. From your letter I'd say the old girl has carried a pretty heavy load during your lifetime.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem and you are the one who is causing it. I am women's editor of the Times-Herald in Newsport News, Va., and every few days I get calls from irate readers who say, "You left off Abby's answer again today!"

Now, Dear Abby, I see all your columns before they go into the newspaper, and I know that sometimes you don't answer a letter—it just stands by itself—since it is a comment on a previously published letter, or someone just letting off steam.

But my readers want to boil me in oil. I'm sure other editors around the country have the same problem. Defend yourself, Abby!

JOY GALLAGHER

DEAR JOY: I'm not necessary. You've explained those "unanswered" letters, and also defended me very well. And I thank you.

DEAR ABBY: We are three college students who feel that you are completely unjustified in maintaining that "there is no such thing as a haunted house."

How can you classify yourself as an authority when many surveys have been taken and have proved that these things exist? Thank you for your attention.

JOY, MARION AND CAROLYN

DEAR J., M., AND C.: That which is "haunted" (according to my Webster's Unabridged Dictionary) is "inhabited by ghosts." If one believes in ghosts, then I suppose there are haunted houses. But I think they should more accurately be called "reputedly haunted houses."

DEAR ABBY: I had to laugh when I read the letter from the mother whose daughter would send home her bills to be paid without even enclosing a note. The mother thought this was very rude, which it was.

But here's something that will really slay you. My brother is on the Battleship U.S.S. New Jersey in Vietnam.

Once a month their captain sends a "newsletter" home to all the men's families. My brother addresses the envelope and slips the mimeographed letter in without even signing his name to it! He feels this is sufficient.

My mother wrote back once and told him she thought he was ingenious to get the captain to write his letters for him. Now we don't even get the "newsletter" anymore.

Subsidy Pattern

American farmers may be interested in knowing their European cousins aren't faring better under various subsidy schemes than they are. And American taxpayers might like to know the schemes aren't working better from their point of view either.

Some years ago the European governments began subsidizing agriculture for much the same reason it is done in the United States — to provide the farmer with an adequate income while guaranteeing a plentiful food output.

Otherwise, the European schemes do not greatly resemble those in the U.S. For one thing, subsidies have been sufficient to perpetuate the small farm, with two-thirds of Common Market farms less than 25 acres in size.

Officials of the alliance are promoting larger agricultural units by offering bonuses and other inducements to small farmers who leave their farms and thus permit consolidation into large, more efficient units.

Suddenly, however, Common Market planners find much of their subsidies concentrated in large producers, and nobody is particularly pleased with the stockpiles of foods and other wastes which have developed. In short, subsidies in Europe are working out about as they have in the U.S.

Postal Business

A presidential commission last July recommended that the postal service be operated like the big business it is. Creation of a non-profit federal corporation to run the Post Office Department free from politics was proposed.

The most President Johnson would say for his commission's report was that it "renders a sobering judgment on what is required." Winton M. Blount, who has been designated to head the department in the Nixon administration, has met with the commission's chairman, Frederick R.

Kappel, retired chairman of AT&T, and said he is giving the report deserved close scrutiny.

While it would be premature for Mr. Blount to take a position on the report at this time, he has indicated there are some recommendations in the report that might make the postal agency more efficient. As things are now, it wouldn't take much.

The real test, of course, is whether Mr. Blount would favor abolishing the postmaster generalship and all the patronage that goes with it.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Occasionally when I am under severe tension or when I eat too rapidly I suddenly develop a closing of my throat and begin to grasp for breath. Even though I am a healthy man it sends me into a panic and terrifies everyone around me. What is responsible for this? Can these attacks be prevented and what are the chances of choking to death?

Mr. S. R., Kansas
Dear Mr. R.: In order to understand how these sudden spasms arise and perhaps how they can be prevented, a little knowledge of anatomy is important. There are two tubes leading from the mouth and the pharynx. One is the esophagus which carries food from the mouth directly to the stomach. The other is a firmer structure through which air passes down into the larynx or voice box and then into the lung.

Under most circumstances there are controlling reflexes that make it virtually impossible for food to go "down the wrong passage." This is one of nature's most remarkable protective mechanisms. Its importance is obvious because food that goes down into the lung may set up inflammation and infection.

Under stress, or when eating too rapidly, some people have a tendency to inhale food or water which then hits the vocal cords and sends them into a sudden protective spasm. Air cannot go in or out and there is an oppressive sense of choking which at time becomes terrifying to the victim and to those who witness it.

When one realizes that this protective spasm is a healthy mechanism perhaps the fear of choking can be minimized. This may give comfort to those who are scared of these spasms. If the spasm lasts for more than a few moments the very worst thing that can happen is that the victim may faint and in this way relax the spasm. Knowing that one cannot choke to death because of this type of spasm should be reassuring.

These spasms tend to occur more frequently in the elderly or in people who wear dentures and are therefore less sensitive to the heat of the food. Eating rapidly with or without alcohol, talking while eating and generally being distracted, may cause this contraction of the vocal cords. These laryngeal spasms may last for a moment, but seem an eternity when the panic of not being able to breathe sets in.

Senator Happy With Laird

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The gossip-mongers who set the tone of so much of our political discourse have been spreading the word that Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, who held so many crucial Southern votes for Nixon at the Miami Beach convention, has been short-changed in the Cabinet appointments. But to talk this way completely overlooks the Senator's character. Say what you will about the Thurmond attitudes on "race" (and as far as this column can see the Senator is not anti-Negro at all, merely a classical States' Righter), the South Carolina Republican lives by the code of chivalry. He harks back to that generation of Southerners that read the novels of Walter Scott. He got no important regional representation in the Nixon Cabinet, but that was not what he was after. One thing in particular that he wanted was a strong man as Secretary of Defense who would halt what he considers to be the slide in our military hardware posture toward "parity" with the Soviets. He got his man in the person of Congressman Melvin Laird, and he thinks it material that Laird comes from Wisconsin, not from Dixie.

Thurmond is convinced we have lost tremendous ground in our defenses during the last eight years. "In 1961," he says, "we had a five - to - one lead over the Soviets in nuclear megatonnage; now we have only parity. The Russians are five years ahead of us in anti-ballistic missile development. Our merchant marine has declined by twenty-six per cent since 1961; the Soviets' merchant marine has increased five hundred per cent. We have gone backwards in fighter planes and bombers; the Russians have gone ahead. We are below parity in submarines. The trouble is that the Russians aren't going to stop with parity; their military budget is up, and so is that of the satellites."

The Defense Department denies the relevance of Senator Thurmond's criticisms. But the recent report of the American Security Council called "The Changing Strategic Naval Balance: U.S.S.R. vs. U.S.A.," which was prepared for the Committee on Armed Services of the House of Representatives, bears Thurmond out insofar as our potential for sea warfare is concerned. True enough, we remain well ahead of the Russians in certain big items. We have 177 conventional destroyers; the Soviets have eighty-six. We have sixteen attack aircraft carriers; the Soviets have none. But destroyers and aircraft carriers (along with our single activated battleship) would be the sitting ducks of modern naval warfare between great powers.

In all the more sneaky categories of vessel the Russians are well ahead of us. They have 250 attack submarines to our 105. Though we have a lead in the number of submarine-launched missiles, the Russians have 100 missile submarines to our forty-one.

The comparative lineup of surface-to-surface missile ships gives Russia twenty - five and ourselves none. Finally, in minecraft, the Soviets have 300; we have eighty-six.

The American Security Council's report is based on unclassified sources only. But the raw material for the report comes from such respectable publications as "Jane's Fighting Ships," the "Naval War College Review," and the "Proceedings" of the U.S. Naval Institute. An important Security Council demurrer is that, "since the U.S.S.R. Navy is growing rapidly, ship counts based on good unclassified sources understate the U.S.S.R. side of the naval balance."

The section of the report devoted to merchant marine comparisons is particularly devastating. The ability to move cargo is the soul and sinew of the sort of war we have been waging in Southeast Asia. Ninety-eight per cent of our goods and 300,000 of our troops have been moved to South Vietnam over water. But the Soviets have overtaken us in merchant ships; they have approximately 1,400 ships and we have declined from a 1950 high of 1,900 merchant vessels to fewer than 1,100. We do remain ahead of the Russians in aggregate tonnage, but eighty per cent of our ships are more than twenty years old whereas eighty per cent of the Soviet merchant marine is less than ten years old. And the U.S.S.R. has 456 merchant ships on order to our measly fifty-one.

This is what confronts Melvin Laird as he prepares to move into the Pentagon. We can only hope that he is everything that gives Russia twenty - five and ourselves none. Finally, in

Pueblo Sailors Feared Death At Panmunjom

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Several members of the Pueblo crew say they feared they would be shot in the back as they crossed the bridge at Panmunjom to freedom.

Communications Technician Sidney J. Karnes of Belleville, Ark., said the windows of the buses in which the 82 surviving crewmen were driven to the Bridge of No Return were covered with sheets.

Karnes said he "didn't know whether to walk or run" across the bridge. But, since he thought he would be shot if he ran—after 11 months of captivity—he says he took the longest walk of his life.

Official Navy journalists, reporting Karnes' statements since newsmen have not been permitted to question the Pueblo men on such topics, said others of the crew also believed they would be shot at the bridge.

The reports, along with others of a lighter nature about the long captivity, were made public by the Navy.

To while away the lonely hours, two crewmen drew detailed designs for a 90-foot sloop.

The plans were drawn by Communications Technician 3.C. Earl M. Kisler of St. Louis, Mo., and Communications Technician 2.C. Michael W. Alexander of Richmond, Wash., using two-inch pencils which they had hidden.

The night before word of their release came, Seaman Robert W. Hill Jr. of Harrisburg, Pa., said he dreamed good news was on the way. He and the other men dreamed often "and you would be surprised how many of the dreams came true," he said.

Karnes said he rarely drank coffee before that January capture in which one of his shipmates was killed in the attack on the U.S. intelligence ship in the Sea of Japan. The day of his release, he said, he drank dozens of cups of coffee. Said Karnes: "Nothing tastes better than coffee."

You're Telling Me

Scientists of Birmingham University now declare that there may be not only one Loch Ness sea serpent but a whole herd of them! Sounds scary—but it could be worse: supposing some one discovered that there's really a whole tribe of Abominable Snowmen?

Some aboriginal natives of northern Australia, it's reported, have been getting themselves high by sniffing gasoline. Sounds like it may be airplane gas.

A South African housewife now claims the world's record for staying awake after having skipped sleep for 282 hours and 55 minutes. After achieving that mark the lady, no doubt, emulated those characters in that famous Christmas poem by setting herself "for a long winter's nap."

There are 25,625 fossilized trees in the Petrified Forest in Arizona, we read. Whoever counted 'em must have found it a stiff task.

The man at the next desk says this is the first time he hasn't broken a single New Year's resolution. He didn't make any.

The old year wanes. The last sands trickle down the hourglass as the old man totters into irrevocable past and a lusty infant year begins.

Bells ring in church steeples, confetti rains, horns blow. People sing and shout and maybe shed a tear. Cries of "Happy New Year" fill the ears and fall on happy hearts, or sad.

To some, the old year brought joy and happiness. To others it held sadness and despair. Thus, men greet the new year differently; some with mockery, some with resolution, still others with a smile.

Whatever your feelings about the year ahead, there is one way to be sure of its promise. God is the source of all goodness. Make Him and His Church a part of your life and you will find the strength and inspiration to make each day prosper.

The sum of its days shapes the year.

NEW YEAR'S TRADITION — In many countries gifts are given at the New Year's celebration. The idea inspired this table set by Oneida. The Dover sterling flatware has dainty floral motif that is echoed in the "gift" centerpiece — a grouping of plants, one for each dinner guest to take home with her.

Bo Schembechler To Succeed Elliott

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The University of Michigan has picked 39-year-old Bo Schembechler from Miami University of Ohio — a school known as the "cradle of coaches"—as its new football coach.

The Associated Press learned Thursday that Schembechler will succeed Chalmers "Bump" Elliott, who in turn will move up to the position of associate athletic director after 19 years at Michigan.

Michigan Athletic Director Don Canham planned to announce the coaching change as well as other reorganizational changes at a news conference today.

Michigan officials declined comment on the reports Thursday that Schembechler, who compiled a 40-17-3 record in his six years at Miami, would be named.

The Detroit Free Press reported that Schembechler's appointment was approved Thursday by the university's Board of Athletics in a top-secret meeting.

Schembechler, who played offensive tackle at Miami, is the latest of many a Miami graduate to be selected for top rank coaching.

Some include pro coaches Paul Brown, who led the Cleveland Browns for many years and now coaches the Cincinnati Bengals, and Weeb Ewbank of the New York Jets, and college mentors Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame, John Pont of Indiana, Carmen Cozza of Yale, Paul Dietzel of South Carolina, and former Army coach Col. Earl "Red" Blaik.

Parseghian and Pont also coached at Miami.

Other former Miami coaches include Woody Hayes. Six Gilman and Stu Holcomb.

Schembechler reportedly was recommended by Parseghian for the Michigan job.

Schembechler was graduated from Miami in 1951 and received his master's degree at Ohio State, where he served as an assistant to Hayes.

Schembechler also served as an assistant to Parseghian at Northwestern.

He led Miami to two Mid-American Conference football championships and three second-place finishes.

It is the first time since 1933, when Fritz Crisler arrived from Princeton, that Michigan has gone outside its own family for a head football coach.

OU And Richmond To Clash Tonight

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Undeclared Ohio University and the Southern Conference champions Richmond Spiders clash in the Tangerine Bowl tonight in a post season football game that could provide plenty of fireworks.

Operating behind quarterback Cleveland Bryant, Ohio ran up 10 victories in the regular season and was ranked 15th in the Associated Press poll. Ohio added spice to the season by taking the Mid-American Conference title.

Richmond lost its first two games, then swept to a 7-3 record and took the Southern Conference championship in impressive fashion.

Oddsmakers see Ohio a one-touchdown favorite.

Bryant passed for 14 touchdowns and ran for eight more as he compiled a total yardage of 2,258 on offense during the season, good enough to make him ninth in the nation.

The versatile quarterback also was Ohio's second leading ground gainer, carrying 181 times for an average of 4.1 yards per try.

Bryant has abundant support in the offensive department. Fullback Bob Houmard scored 19 touchdowns and tailback Dave Leveck went over 11 times. And split end Todd Snyder picked up three touchdowns as he caught 46 passes for 770 yards.

The Spiders can put up some impressive statistics of their own.

Richmond quarterback Buster O'Brien, a pro-type signal caller who stays in the pocket, hit on 149 of 225 tosses. They were good for 1,961 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Walker Gillett, a 6-foot-5 split end, is the big man among Richmond's pass receivers. Gillett, son of former National Football League player Jim Gillett, scored eight touchdowns and caught 50 passes this year.

Over a two-year period, Gillett has pulled down 102 receptions.

Kickoff was set for 8:30 p.m. EST. The game was to be carried by Sports Network Television.

Floridians Top Houston, 111-108

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don Freeman's marksmanship 15 feet from the basket paid off time and again for the Miami Floridians. One time from the same distance was enough for Fred Lewis and the Indiana Pacers.

Freeman hit on 14 of 16 shots from the free throw line on the way to a 42-point spree that led the Floridians past Houston 111-108 Thursday night for their third straight American Basketball Association victory.

Lewis' 15-foot jump shot with two seconds to play in overtime gave Indiana a 134-123 nod over Minnesota in the only other game on the ABA schedule.

Dave Foley Named For Scholarship

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Dave Foley, Ohio State's All American tackle, was named Thursday as one of 33 top college football players who also show academic excellence.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association announced that Foley would receive a $1,000 post graduate scholarship.

Kenyon Lords Dump Millikan In Tourney

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Kenyon's 5-foot-9 junior guard John Rinka upped his top small college scoring average Thursday and powered the Lords into the semifinal round of the Quincy, Ill., College Holiday Basketball Tournament.

Kenyon will play Tennessee A & I tonight.

Rinka had 41 points as the Lords dumped Millikan College of Illinois 108-100. His two free throws with 10 minutes remaining put Kenyon ahead to stay at 80-79. The Lords trailed 56-51 at the half.

Rinka was shooting 38.7 points a game going into the tournament.

He got help from John Dunlop and Marty Hunt, each scoring 21 points.

In other quarter final round of the tournament, DePaul lost to Lincoln College of Missouri 91-84. Five DePaul players hit double figures with Fred Wierwille leading the way with 15 points.

DePaul will play in the consolation round tonight.

In the Central Connecticut Tourney, Northeastern defeated Marietta 70-61. Mark Ulrey of Marietta led all scorers with 20 points.

Ohio Northern drew a bye in Thursday's first round of the Marshall, Mich., Tournament and will play today.

Hayes Eyes OSU Moves On Simpson

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Ohio State football Coach Woody Hayes makes it clear that his Buckeyes will have to do more than stop O. J. Simpson to whip Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

"Southern Cal is a good example of a football team that ties up with its passing and running," Hayes said Thursday.

"They've got real cool operators at the quarterback and tailback positions," the veteran Buckeye coach said, referring to Steve Sogge and All-American Simpson.

"That Sogge is definitely a problem. Sogge doesn't run much but he knows when to run. I'll say that much for him."

The coach of the nation's No. 1-ranked team said he is impressed with Southern Cal after watching movies of the Trojans.

"They improved tremendously as the season went on. The pictures showed it," he said.

Someone asked the dean of Big Ten coaches what he planned to do to stop the elusive Simpson.

"We'll probably do the same thing everyone else has done and hope we do it better," Hayes replied. "I'll admit it didn't work very well."

Bill Robinson Dies After Race

POMPAHO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Bill Robinson, a 59-year-old harness race driver from Sugar Creek, Ohio, collapsed and died Thursday night at the Pompano Beach, Fla., race track.

Robinson's death came just as he had finished driving Trailmaster to victory in the fourth race.

George Allen Firing A Shocker

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The firing of Los Angeles Rams' head Coach George Allen left most Ram followers puzzled and shocked today, but some players say they weren't totally surprised.

Allen, 46, was fired Thursday by Dan Reeves, president and general manager of the National Football League club. Reeves said a personality conflict led to his decision. "It was probably more my fault than his," said Reeves.

Allen called a news conference for today.

In three years with the Rams, after the Western Division team had suffered seven straight losing seasons, Allen turned Los Angeles into a winner with seasons of 8-6, 11-1-2 and 10-3-1.

Elvin Hayes Gets Starting Position In All-Star Tilt

NEW YORK (AP)—Elvin Hayes, the sensational San Diego rookie, has been picked over towering Wilt Chamberlain for the starting center position on the Western team for the annual National Basketball Association All-Star game.

The 19th annual East-West classic will be played at Baltimore's Civic Center Jan. 14.

Forward Elgin Baylor, Chamberlain's teammate on the Los Angeles Lakers, was the only unanimous choice of the sports writers and sportscasters from the franchise cities who picked eight players. Western coaches will select the other four players for the squad next week.

The other starters, named today, include another Laker superstar, guard Jerry West; guard Len Wilkens of Seattle, and forward Don Kojis, another San Diego star. Also selected were forward Lou Hudson of Atlanta, guard Jerry Sloan of Chicago and Chamberlain.

Aussie Yacht Leads Lona Ocean Race

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Starfire, a 53-foot West Australian yacht, took the lead by seven miles today in the 640-mile Sydney-to-Hobart ocean yacht race with 450 miles to go.

Rage, an American yacht, was reported fifth, about 20 miles behind Starfire. Condine II, another U.S. entry, came in on the radio and reported she was 10th.

Allen's deals earned him the name of The Trader and in 1966 the Rams were 8-6, their best record in eight years.

The following season Los Angeles was 11-1-2, won the Coastal Division title and, after a 28-7 loss to Green Bay for the Western Division crown, thrashed Cleveland 30-6 in the Playoff Bowl.

This year the Rams were hit by injury and illness but wound up 10-3-1, losing their last two games—to Chicago 17-16 and to Baltimore 28-24.

Allen, a native of Detroit, played football at Marquette in 1944. He began his pro coaching career with the Rams in 1957 after nine years of college coaching at Morningside in Iowa and Whittier in California.

Kansas Defeats Nebraska 82-56; Eye 1,000th Win

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Just seven more and the Kansas Jayhawks will become the first college basketball team to win 1,000 games.

Led by Olympic star Jo Jo White, the once-beaten Jayhawks won their eighth straight and career No. 993 by whipping Nebraska 82-56 in the first round of the Big Eight Holiday Tournament at Kansas City Thursday night.

White scored a career high of 29 points and stole the ball six times, resulting in five more Kansas baskets. If the Jayhawks keep winning, they figure to chalk up career victory No. 1,000 at Kansas State on Jan. 18.

The victory by the Jayhawks, ranked eighth nationally in the Associated Press poll, highlighted the start of the deluge of the numerous holiday tournaments between Christmas and New Year's.

Unbeaten Duquesne and Columbia made it eight and seven in a row, respectively, with victories in the All-College Tourney at Oklahoma City and the Rainbow Classic at Honolulu.

The Dukes, paced by Moe Barr's 26 points, topped Texas A&M 83-71. Columbia, led by Jim McMillian's 25 points, almost blew a 20-point lead, but survived to down Stanford 69-66.

In other first games in the Big Eight, All-College and Rainbow Classic, Colorado trounced Oklahoma 63-56, Oklahoma City hung on to defeat Tulane 94-86 and ninth-ranked Santa Clara beat West Virginia 72-58.

Brigham Young upset California 82-74 and Oregon whipped Yale 84-71 in the opening of the Far West Classic at Portland, Ore.

Boston College, sparked by Terry Driscoll's 26 points, came from 17 points back to beat Georgia 89-83 after Northwest-ern's outside shooting gave the Wildcats a 76-72 victory over Florida in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville.

East Carolina took Cornell 74-67, Virginia Tech trampled Delaware 79-58, Baylor downed William and Mary 81-83 and Virginia edged the Air Force 90-85 in the East Carolina Classic at Greenville, N.C.

The night's activities cleared the decks for the start of more and more tournaments tonight, highlighted by the appearance of top-ranked UCLA against Providence and the clash between second-ranked North Carolina and fifth-ranked Villanova in New York's Holiday Festival.

West, Lakers Drive To 95-94 Win Over Detroit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Jerry West crashed the National Basketball Association's 16,000-point barrier... and kept driving for more.

The Los Angeles backcourt ace dribbled almost the length of the floor and put in a driving, one-hander with 10 seconds to play, giving the Lakers a 95-94 victory over the Detroit Pistons Thursday night.

Earlier in the game West, who finished with 29 points, became the eighth player in NBA history to reach the 16,000 career mark.

Elsewhere, Boston drubbed Milwaukee 139-106, Philadelphia stopped Baltimore 125-120, Chicago trimmed Cincinnati 104-95, Atlanta riddled Seattle 126-96 and San Francisco nosed out Phoenix 119-118.

Davis Cup Headed Back To America

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Harry Hopman's big gamble failed and the Davis Cup, the symbol of world tennis supremacy, is headed back to the United States for only the fourth time in the last 18 years.

Stan Smith and Bob Lutz, a pair of collegians from the University of Southern California who perform together like precision dancers on a chorus line, clinaxed an eight-month American campaign by crushing Australia's Ray Ruffels and 17-year-old John Alexander in the deciding doubles match 6-4, 6-4, 6-2.

Cleveland Barons Top Buffalo, 3-2

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland scored twice in the third period, with Howie Glover getting the clincher at 11:29 after Cecil Heiskra's second score of the night tied it, to give the Barons a 3-2 American Hockey League victory over Buffalo Thursday night.

Heiskra made it 2-2 when he flipped a four foot shot past Bison goalie Al Johnstone at 6:38. Glover came up from behind the cage and fired in the winning goal. Both scores came with the Barons a man short.

Views on TV - Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Unlikely as it may seem, Jonathan Winters seems to be a much more amusing fellow in the early evening than in the later part. It may work out that CBS' "Jonathan Winters Show" got the better part of the deal in the time swap with "Hawaii Five-O."

The variety hour had its premiere in the earlier Thursday period, and its star had some very funny turns, one at the top of the show when he was extemporaneously answering questions from the audience and later when he was playing a very drunken liquor inspector in a sketch.

For a windup there was a refreshing sequence when our retold hero gathered around him members of Roy Rogers and Dale Evans family—and their assembled children. Children's spouses and grandchildren seemed larger even than the King family—to tell the story of Hansel and Gretel. He did such a terrible job that he was roundly booed by the kiddies at the end—a nice change of pace after all the lovable, well-rehearsed story-tellers to whom we have been exposed of recent date.

The hour contained another especially bright number—a quick review in comedy blackouts of some major events of the year. It encompassed France's money troubles with a De Gaulle spoof. It made a joke about the hijacking of airliners—a Castro-like creature was shown sticking a gun at Santa's head and ordering his sleigh south. And it even took in the Onassis-Kennedy wedding—there was Winters in a little Lord Fauntleroy suit standing on a pier and shouting through a bull horn in the direction of a large yacht anchored nearby: "Can Caroline and John come out and play?"

One can only regret that the show—which apparently has dropped some of the more cumbersome features, has not yet figured out what to do with one of its regulars, Cliff Arquette, who can be a wild and inventive comic.

"Hawaii Five-O," which took over Winters' old spot last Wednesday night, continues to be another stereotyped cops-and-robbers story with only those lush island location shots to give it any distinction.

Ed McMahon, with his own daytime game show, his nighttime announcing chores on the Johnny Carson show, commercials to make and a number of outside activities unrelated to show business, has taken on another job that would be a full-time occupation for most men. At the request of Gen. Emmet —Rosie—O'Donnell, he will produce the big inaugural gala in Washington's armory on Jan. 18.

McMahon has already lined up the cast of "George M.," Dinah Shore, Roger Williams, Les Brown and his band and, of course, Carson, for the big show which he also will M.C. He has lined out to several other performers.

The talent, except for the musicians, will contribute their performances with only travel costs and accommodations covered. McMahon will spend long weekends—Thursday through Sunday—in the capital.

Recommended tonight: "The view from the White House with Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson," ABC, 7:30-8:30 EST, an intimate glimpse of the first family in their Washington home, via an informal conversation with the President's wife.

Shula Sees Straight Play

BALTIMORE (AP) — Proper execution of proven plays will outweigh surprise gimmicks in Sunday's National Football League championship game, says Coach Don Shula of the Baltimore Colts.

"Teams don't get this far without doing some things right," Shula said of his Colts and their opponents, the Cleveland Browns. "You don't throw out the things you can do and use gimmick stuff."

"If anything new is done, it will be a wrinkle here and there on offense or defense. But there won't be any wholesale changes."

A breakdown of Baltimore basics helped contribute to Cleveland's 30-20 victory in a regular season game between the two teams. It was Baltimore's only loss in 15 games.

"We're happy for the opportunity to play Cleveland again," Shula said. "We hope to play a lot better than we did in the first game, and execute better."

SPORTS Highlights

NEW YORK (AP) — Pistol Pete Maravich of Louisiana State has widened his lead over Calvin Murphy of Niagara in the major college basketball individual scoring race.

The latest weekly statistics from the National Collegiate Sports Services today showed Maravich on top with an average of 47.4 points in five games through last Saturday. Murphy is second with a 37.1 average in seven games.

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Minnesota, behind Scott Buchan's hat trick, scored an easy 10-1 victory over Ohio State in the opening round of the Second Annual Big 10 ice hockey tournament.

Dave What scored the only Buckeye goal in the second period.

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — The United States plays Canada tonight in its opening game of Bermuda's international youth soccer tourney. Mexico beat Canada 6-1 and Bermuda defeated Barbados 7-0 Thursday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Nineteen members of the U.S. Alpine ski team flew to Zurich, Switzerland, Thursday night where they will compete in the World Cup competition.

Port Columbus Sees Heavy Crush Of Rose Bowl Traffic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Port Columbus International Airport has started feeling the effects of Ohio's mass emigration to the Rose Bowl by participants and fans — but Saturday is the big day.

An unprecedented 24 charter flights will leave Port Columbus with an estimated 4,000 Ohioans aboard, tripling the average Saturday figures. The extra load will tax many facilities. Auto parking has been the main concern, and officials are getting more nervous.

"If it's a warm weekend we'll really be congested," said John Clifford, acting airport superintendent. "Our main concern right now is having people come to the airport with other people."

Two charter flights left Thursday. There were three scheduled today. Sunday, the final heavy day, will have six charters to Los Angeles.

The airport's manpower will increase several times over—more maintenance crews for aircraft, more hostesses, more waitresses and more restaurant help to service a temporary hot dog stand set up in the north lobby.

Extra flights have been scheduled by at least nine airline companies.

There have never been as many four-engine jets, before at Port Columbus. The airport's previous peak period was for four days in 1957, the last time OSU played in the Rose Bowl. That record is topped about six times over by the current estimates.

Lt. Earl Joiner of the Columbus Police Department met Thursday with airport officials. Joiner's job is coordinating vehicle traffic. "We'll be able to move them in, but we don't know what the parking situation will be," Joiner said. "We might use the old 17th Avenue (once the main entrance), and that's about a mile long. There's a grass lot too, but if it thaws and gets muddy we can't use it."

Kored Food No Good, Sailor Says

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The low-fat diet of his North Korean captors helped John Higgins shed unwanted weight — about 70 pounds.

Behind the walls that held America's USS Pueblo crewmen, his mates tried to joke in their misery by calling Higgins "Slenderella."

The 6-foot-5 sailor from St. Joseph, Mo., was no 197-pound weakling. He weighed 280 pounds when the U.S. intelligence ship was seized last Jan. 23. When he reached the 121st evacuation hospital in Ascom City, South Korea, last Sunday with the other 81 survivors, Higgins weighed 210.

There, he chowd down on such American nonfoods as chicken noodle soup, coffee, milk and juices. In five days he gained five pounds.

"I'd like to eat every kind of food there is," he said.

Most of his fellow captives lost 20 to 40 pounds in the compound at Pyongyang, North Korea. Their diet consisted of the food of the season — during winter we had turnips a lot. In the summer we had some kind of spinach plant and we had a lot of cabbage."

But, mostly, it was soup. With a little rice.

"If only the Korean cooks had some imagination," Higgins said in San Diego Naval Hospital, where the Pueblo men were taken Tuesday for medical tests and official questioning.

"I'd like to try turnips again. I'd like to try them cooked with spices and really cooked instead of just boiled in soup. These guys just chopped them up and threw them in the water and let them simmer for a while."

Walter Winchell Son A Suicide

TUSTIN, Calif. (AP)—The son of columnist Walter Winchell died of a single gunshot wound in the mouth, the coroner's office says.

Walter Winchell Jr., 33, died Wednesday night. A .38-caliber pistol was found lying beside his body.

The victim's wife, Eva Annelies Winchell, 34, told police that her husband wrote a suicide note on Dec. 20. She said he attempted suicide last Christmas and underwent therapy for about four months following the incident.

Winchell was working as a dishwasher at the time of his death and the family was receiving welfare benefits. He listed his occupation as a freelance writer.

Illegal Weapons Are Confiscated

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A collection of weapons including a Thompson submachine gun, were confiscated Thursday from the home of a Cleveland man, along with Nazi insignia and pornographic pictures.

Police said the man, a deaf mute from the West Side, is now in city jail awaiting charges.

Man Testifies In Hotel Blaze That Killed 5

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—John Peterson, 46, the man in whose room the A & A Hotel fire started, testified Thursday before the Cleveland Fire Prevention Bureau.

Five persons were killed in the fire last week and firemen said careless smoking was the cause of the fire.

Peterson told the bureau he was asleep when a burning sensation in his hand awakened him. He told investigators he ran downstairs and got the desk clerk who filled a pail of water.

They were unable to extinguish the fire and it spread to the surrounding second-floor rooms in the 110-year-old hotel.

Peterson said that he "normally" smokes cigarettes at night when he is home, but that he doesn't know if the fire was started by a cigarette last Thursday.

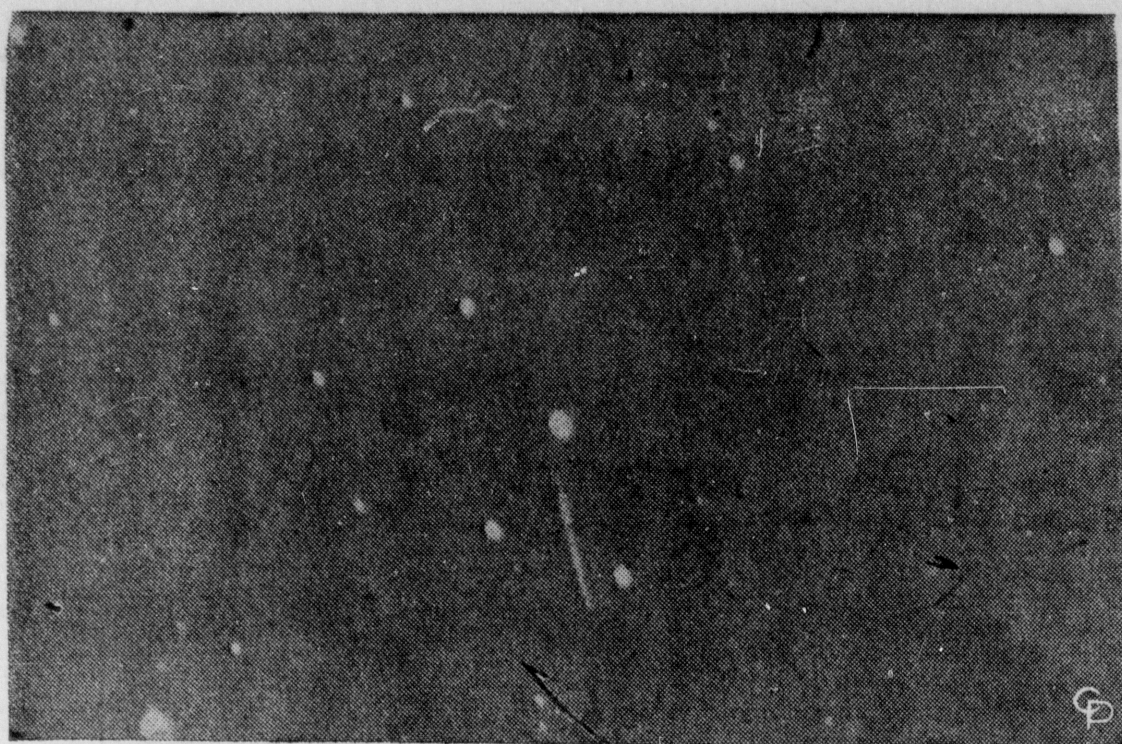

'Dynamite Bandit' To Face Trial

CINCINNATI (AP)—The man known as Cincinnati's "dynamite bandit" has been judged sane and will stand trial at a date to be selected for two bank robberies here recently.

Denver Hall, 40, was ruled sane and capable of standing trial Thursday by Judge John Keefe of Hamilton County Common Pleas Court following an examination at Pollman Psychiatric Institute.

He was charged with two counts of robbery of a financial institution after he surrendered, claiming he robbed two branches of the Fifth Third Union Trust Co. of $6,810. In both cases, the man told tellers he would set off dynamite he had wired to his chest if they did not give him money.

THAT STREAK surrounded by three stars is the Apollo 8 some 151,000 miles distant, as seen via a 61-inch reflector telescope at the U.S. Naval Observatory in Flagstaff, Ariz. The astronomer team of J. Wray, H. Ables, J. Christy and R. L. Walker made the photo.

NASA Sees Moon Landing As Possible During Spring

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—Apollo 8's trail-blazing flight around the moon has given space planners a firm foothold to try for a moon landing in the next few months—maybe April or May.

One major piece of Apollo hardware still remains to be qualified, the lunar module spacecraft that will taxi future astronauts from a three-man Apollo craft in lunar orbit to the moon's surface.

That four-legged lunar lander is to get its first manned space test about Feb. 20 during America's next three-man mission, Apollo 9.

If the lunar module performs perfectly in earth orbit on Apollo 9, astronauts conceivably could land on the moon on the following flight, Apollo 10, in April or May.

Present plans for Apollo 10—to be flown by a three-man crew headed by veteran astronaut Air Force Col. Thomas P. Stafford—call for the pilots to fly a moon orbit mission in which the lunar module separates from a three-man Apollo spaceship and approaches within 10 miles of the surface, but does not land.

"Our present plans are to not commit Apollo 10 for a landing," said Air Force Lt. Gen. Samuel C. Phillips, Apollo program director. However, "We might want to exercise a more ambitious option," he noted, as was done when the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) decided to send Apollo 8 around the moon.

OSU Baton Twirler Gets Her Chance

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 19-year-old national baton twirling champion, a sophomore at Ohio State University, will lead the California Toppers Band in the Parade of Roses in Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's Day.

Miss Judy Kassouf of Lakewood was not allowed to perform with the Ohio State Marching Band. Director Charles Spohn said that there was not enough time allotted for a performance by Miss Kassouf.

The first lunar landing mission is now expected by Apollo 11, next May or June. Astronauts have not yet been assigned for that flight.

The particular lunar module assigned to Apollo 10 does not have fuel tanks with enough capacity and weighs too much for a lunar landing. So if a decision is made to fly the Apollo 10 crew to the moon's surface, another lunar module would have to be assigned to the mission, Phillips pointed out.

Corazon Amurao To Be Married; Slaying Survivor

MANILA (AP)—Corazon Amurao, the lone survivor of the 1936 Chicago nurse massacre, will marry her hometown sweetheart, Alberto Atienza, a lawyer, Jan. 5.

Miss Amurao, now 25, was elected a municipal councilor in San Luis after returning home from Chicago.

She hid under a bed while eight other nurses were slain in a dormitory at the South Chicago Community Hospital, and has since filed a multimillion-dollar suit against the hospital.

Miss Amurao was the key witness against Richard Speck, who was convicted of the killings and is now under death sentence.

Moorer Won't Prejudge Acts In Pueblo Case

Naval Inquiry To Look Into Crew's Actions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chief of naval operations, says "I'm not going to prejudge" whether the officers and men of the U.S. intelligence-gathering ship Pueblo conducted themselves properly while held captive by North Korea.

At least two admirals have referred publicly to Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, the Pueblo's skipper, and the other 81 surviving crew members as heroes.

"Some people have expressed personal opinions," Moorer acknowledged when asked about this in an interview. He indicated he was not criticizing them.

The Navy's top admiral insisted expression of personal opinions by high ranking officers will not impair a Navy court of inquiry's ability to reach an objective judgment.

Moorer said "I am confident" the Pueblo did not enter North Korea's claimed territorial waters.

If the ship had done so, Bucher would have been violating his sailing orders to stay at least 13 miles clear of North Korean territory.

A Navy court of inquiry at San Diego under Vice Adm. H.G. Bowen probably will open proceedings in two weeks after the recuperating crew has had some leave.

Pacific Fleet commander Adm. John G. Hyland, who will review the findings of the court, told the Pueblo's crewmen earlier this week that "you are regarded as a group of young heroes."

Rear Adm. Edwin M. Rosenberg has spoken of Bucher as "a hero among heroes."

Lady Bird Happy To Leave Ringing Telephone Behind

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson says the thing she's happiest about leaving behind after five years in the White House are all the early morning, often ominous, telephone calls to the President.

"The horrendous ring of that telephone at 4:00 o'clock that drags you to consciousness and you know on the other end that it is something significant," Mrs. Johnson says. "And it is never good when it rings at that time."

"It is—and then, the sense of responsibility. It is not my responsibility but it does spill over into the whole climate of your life."

Mrs. Johnson also says she will be happy to leave behind the deadlines she and the President constantly face and the 18-hour work days.

The first lady made her comments in a taped television interview with Howard K. Smith to be shown at 7:30 p.m. EST over the American Broadcasting Co. network.

Mrs. Johnson says the President, like other men across the nation, brings the problems of his job home with him. And he also brings home unexpectedly the people he works with.

She said, however, she wanted the President to bring the burdens home to her after a long day in office.

One of the most difficult things for her to leave behind, Mrs. Johnson said, is what she calls the magnetism of the White House.

"This house is a magnet, a crossroads of good conversation, for ideas, for stimulation," she says. "All the political leaders of the country and indeed of the whole free world come through these doors, and businessmen and labor leaders and people from arts and entertainment and scientists."

"It is an exceedingly stimulating place. That I shall miss. So I think something of that life will go with my husband wherever he goes."

At one point during the interview, President Johnson walked in. He said that Mrs. Johnson gave him great strength during his term. "Except for that, the job would be much more lonely and I am afraid I would be much weaker," he said.

Nigerian Truce Said Violated

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—Radio Biafra charged today the Nigerian army violated its Christmas Day cease-fire by shelling and attacking two towns, killing 11 soldiers and seven civilians.

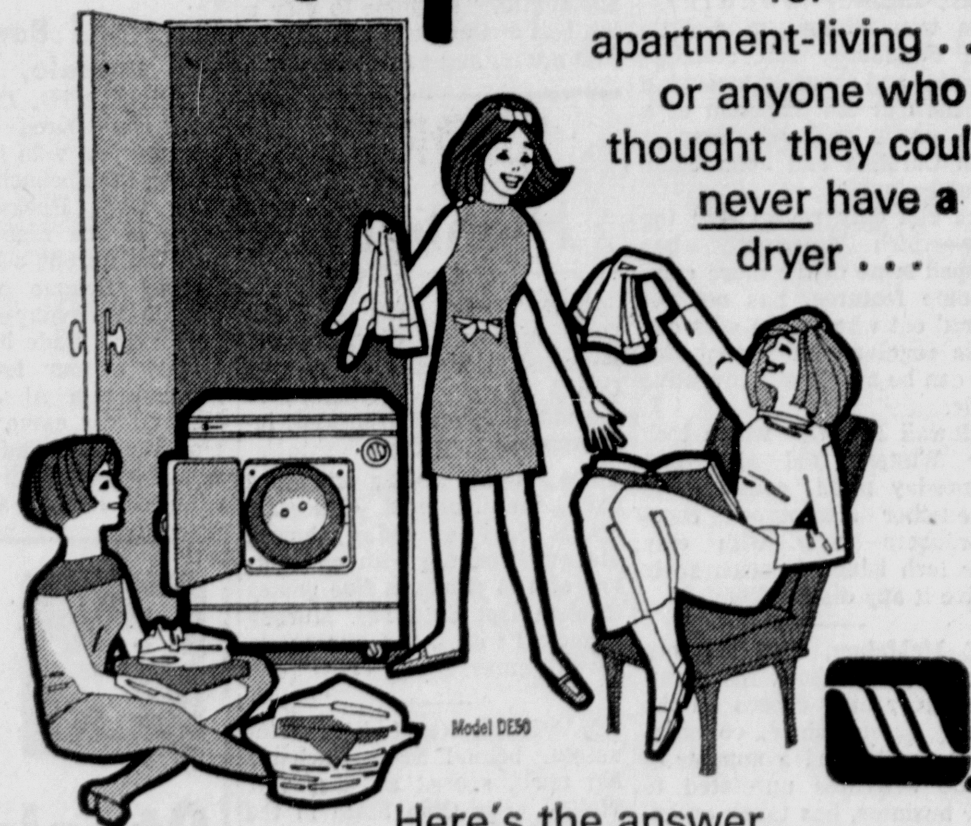

The breakaway African state's radio said the attacks and a Nigerian bombardment Saturday of Umuahia, the last major Biafran stronghold, were a display of bad faith by the federal government.

The Nigerian head of state, Maj. Gen. Yakubu Gowon, had declared last Saturday, a Moslem feast day, and Wednesday cease-fire days. Biafra had announced an eight-day cease-fire, but the federal government rejected an extension of the truce.
